Simulator / Facility

The CPTS is constructed to realistically simulate tanks of a chemical tanker. It has two tanks with a each. The front wall has glass windows for easy viewing of the cargo tanks while undergoing load stripping and tank cleaning operation from the outside. The facility also has a FRAMO pump operation. Trainees can assemble, disassemble, replace the cargo seal or mechanical seal, and dis pumps for better appreciation and feel of the different FRAMO pumps elements.

Reasons to Attend the Course

The scope of training covers the competences and the required knowledge, understanding a prescribed in Section A-V/1-1, Table A-V/1-1-2of the STCW Code as amended. The course is de trainees to successfully demonstrate the competences, specifically, familiarize with physical and che of all cargoes; take precautions to prevent hazards and apply occupational health and safety prec and control compliance with legislative requirements; safely perform and monitor all cargo precautions to prevent pollution of the environment; and respond to emergencies.

- Training Calendar
  26-28 September
  25-26 November
  Upper-Mid February