

Simulator / Facility

Trainees' understanding of the topics discussed in this course is enhanced through the utilization art Mitsubishi Diesel Plant Simulator that is interfaced with actual modern control system installe modern Japanese-designed vessels.

Reasons to Attend the Course

The course provides training for Senior Engineer Officers on the safe operation of the ship's mai auxiliaries. This training covers significant competences under some functions specified in Sect STCW Code 1978, as amended, such as marine engineering at the operational level; electr engineering at the management level; and maintenance and repair at the management level.

- Training Calendar
  - August October