Simulator / Facility

This training includes practical exercises which are conducted in the mooring workshop equippe mooring equipment.

Reasons to Attend the Course

After completion of this course, trainees will be equipped with the knowledge and understandi competencies under Function 1 of Section A-II/5 of the STCW Code 1978, as amended, which is berthing, anchoring and other mooring operations. Since mooring is one of the most complex and onboard the ship, trainees will also learn to avoid related personal injuries through the different m discussed in this training.

Training Venue

- Training Calendar