

Simulator / Facility

This training course utilizes a fully-functional TOKYO KEIKI ECDIS equipment models EC-8000/8500 a series typically found onboard modern ships. It is capable of demonstrating ECDIS set-up, manuals, chart handling, and software updating. It also has sensors, alarms for errors and other tools for loadin the ship's planned route.

Reasons to Attend the Course

The main goal of this course is to provide the Officer-In-Charge of navigational watch with the knowledg and proficiency in the use of TOKYO KEIKI brand models within the series. Those successfully comp specific training shall have necessary confidence in operating TOKYO KEIKI ECDIS equipment for pla and monitoring safe navigation using electronic charts, thus fufilling the STCW-2010 regulation II/1 and to STCW-2010 code A-II/1 and A-II/2.

- Training Calendar
  [redacted] 1 March
  [redacted] December